It's a great place to spend a relaxing day or evening shopping, strolling, and dining. If you're lucky enough to be in town for a festival, you'll see why people from all over the country make the trip to attend our hugely popular events. Downtown Apex is a key reason that Money Magazine named Apex the #1 Best Place to Live in 2015.

OUR HISTORY

Downtown Apex, considered one of the most intact turn-of-the-century railroad towns in the area, received official designation as a Historic District in 1994.

The Downtown Historic District has commercial and residential buildings dating back to the late 1800s which represent a large variety of architectural styles. Many buildings are listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

The original Apex train depot was built sometime between 1867 and 1873. It was destroyed by fire and rebuilt in 1914 and has been designated as a Wake County landmark. An old caboose has been added to the site and serves as a historical museum.

OUR NAME

Before the town was officially named Apex, it was known as Log Pond due to its large timber market. The main sawmill also kept logs in a pond in the middle of what is now Downtown Apex. The town was eventually named Apex because the community was the highest point on the Chatham Railroad. Another justification for the name "Apex" comes from the fact that rain falling on the East side of the tracks eventually flows to the Neuse River, while rain falling on the West side along Salem Street runs down to the Cape Fear River.
